

With nearly 200 members and vibrantly growing, SGVPA is your absolutely best local organization for expanding connections and keeping up with psychology in your own neighborhood.

Here is a sampling of the many membership benefits:

1. SGVPA Listserv—Got a practice related question, concern, or professional comment to share with colleagues? The SGVPA internet Listserv can put you in instant touch with your colleagues, many of whom you'll actually know!
2. Special Interest Groups - we have ongoing club events as well as special interest groups – Children & Adolescents, Addictions & Recovery, Clinical Psychopharmacology, and Mindfulness Group – watch for announcements and meeting times in the newsletter and on our website.
3. Continuing Education With Lunch—At our monthly luncheons, hear informative speakers, earn continuing education credits, get to know other local psychologists, and have a delicious lunch in beautiful surroundings.
4. Early Career Psychologists — students, pre-licensed, and newly licensed professionals receive special support with regular social meetings, and have the opportunity to be paired with established members for developing their professional lives and career choices.
5. Analyze This! — Award winning, as voted by the California Psychological Association, receive our clever and informative newsletter which includes regular columns, important legal and ethical briefs, “showcasing” of individual members, member /announcements and advertisements, and important updates in the world of psychology practice.
6. Online Directory! - List yourself (and your services) in our Pasadena area directory, which is posted on our Website!
